CARSON VALLEY (Jan. 22, 2019) – As they do each winter, bald eagles, golden eagles, falcons, hawks, owls and other wildlife concentrate in Carson Valley, Nevada. Now in its 18th season, the Eagles & Agriculture event highlights the arrival of these raptors and the role that the ranching community plays in providing habitat for wildlife.

Eagles & Agriculture commences at the Carson Valley Chamber of Commerce on Thursday, Jan. 23, 2020 and continues to Sunday, Jan. 26, 2020. The four-day event includes tours of ranches accompanied by expert birders and historians, the popular Owl Prowl, a Wildlife Photography Class with professional photographer JT Humphrey and the Falconers Dinner where guests can get close to a variety of raptors.

The weekend event kicks off in Gardnerville, Nevada and continues with tours of the beautiful region of Carson Valley, all just 45 minutes south of Reno International Airport. For complete details, tour and class reservations, please visit online or call the Carson Valley Chamber of Commerce at 775-782-8144.
