You're Invited to the Ultimate Fall Getaway in Carson Valley

CARSON VALLEY (Sept. 22, 2021) – Leaves are falling and autumn is calling visitors to Carson Valley in northern Nevada. Situated in the foothills of the Sierra Nevada, Carson Valley is a region of four quaint historical towns that shine with a palette of gold, crimson and amber during the seasonal change. From towering mountain peaks to wide-open ranchlands, Carson Valley offers an abundance of easy-going experiences that are delivered in an American West fashion: friendly, warm and a little bit wild.

From nearly 100-year-old festivities that offer an opportunity to taste the sweet life to heart-stopping leaf peeping photo opportunities, Carson Valley is an autumnal cornucopia of things to do. Grab a pumpkin spice latte, slip on some boots and read on for the ultimate visitor's guide to Carson Valley this fall.

About Carson Valley:

Nestled at the base of the Sierra, Carson Valley begs visitors to not just drive through it, but to it. Located 45 miles south of Reno-Tahoe International Airport and 12 miles east of South Lake Tahoe, the region's natural beauty is legendary: wide-open farms, ranches, bands of wild horses and birds of prey dot the landscape. Outdoor recreation enthusiasts follow all points of the compass with more than 50+ miles of hiking, mountain biking or walking trails along with world class road biking. The valley's museums, arts, antiquing, Basque dining, historic watering holes and more add to the destination's authentic culture. The region includes the communities of Minden, Gardnerville, Topaz Lake and Genoa, Nevada's first settlement dating back to 1851.
